This project will be one of the most challenging weeks of your life! As you consider applying, remember that much of the work on a project like this must be done prior to our leaving! If you decide to apply for Mexico 2011, know that you are committing yourselves to extensive prayer, planning, and fundraising. You are also committing yourselves to continued involvement in the life and ministry of your home church. If you are coming with other family members, please fill out the application together.

1. Why are you applying to be a part of the Mexico 2011 team? What do you hope to get out of it?
2. Describe your spiritual journey so far.
3. Have you had any opportunity to serve your community in the past? If so, how?
4. What gifts and skills do you bring to this project?
5. What fears do you have related to this project?
